

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

While it is already troublesome to have to deal with crying children, and/or individuals who insist on talking throughout the flight (loudly), allowing cell phone use during flight will only cause more stress and probably offend many people, thereby causing a ruckus in flight.

Please leave the rules that are in place now in effect. It isn't fair to all passengers who have paid hard-earned-money to have to be subjected to another's phone call. Thanks.

Sincerely,

Monica Camara
